

Strategy Consultant - Basingstoke

We have an opening for an experienced Strategy Consultant to join the consulting team of Canadean. We are a leading global research company whose in-depth market analysis and research help some of the world's leading beverage businesses.

The Company...

Working with high profile companies that include Heineken, PepsiCo, Coca Cola, Red Bull, Carlsberg plus many others, Canadean is considered as the beverage industry's information specialist. With office locations that include, Hong Kong, Madrid, Shanghai, Beijing and Argentina/Mexico Canadean is a global player helping to provide the industry with the essential insight, research, reports and data that ensure their clients remain market leaders.

The Role...

As an integral member of the consulting team the Strategy Consultant will liaise with international Researchers and Project Analysts providing bespoke strategic consultancy for the soft drinks, beer, beverage packaging and associated industries. Building strong client relationships you will provide a valuable contribution to the core consulting work which includes client pitches, taking analysis through to strategic interpretation and conclusions, and presenting final output to the client.

Key Skills...

As a first class Strategy Consultant your CV should highlight experience in the following:

- A strong background covering strategic consultancy and industry analysis gained within the international arena, either within a consulting business or from within a Corporate Strategy team.
- An education to degree level; plus a high level of numeracy (ideally gained at degree level).
- An ability to build strong relationships with core clients.
- Ability to prioritise tasks/objectives with strong organisational, administrative and analytical skills.
- Show an ability to extract and analyse data in order to produce interesting and informative analysis.
- Excellent Excel, Word and PowerPoint skills

You should also possess...

- A willingness to travel short and long haul at relatively short notice
- A 2nd language (highly desirable)
- Knowledge of the beverage industry (highly desirable)

Great Benefits...

Recognised as market leaders you will be joining an organisation that offers a flexible working environment and a very competitive remuneration which includes 25 days holiday per annum, pension scheme, and private medical insurance. This position will be based in Basingstoke, but for the right candidate we will explore other (European) locations.
